Chapter 1 by PuppyLover

I lay on the ground. My back on the cement. Blood all around me. I was sitting in a pool of it. This was it. What I wanted.... Death... I wanted to die. But is this really what I wanted? Sure life was bad. But not enough for death. My eyes swam to the right.

Chapter 2 by Alissa Ferrell

I then saw the one who stabbed me, HIM, my boyfriend, whom I soon learned wasn't who I thought he was. He chuckled, "You really thought that I loved you". He spit in my face. "Sweetie, I never loved you". I started silently crying because I was too weak to scream, to cry out for help. "Awww, look at the little baby crying", he mocked. I started feeling woozy and my eyes started closing and I heard him walking away. I was now in a very big pool of my blood. This is the end, I thought. I'm going to Heaven...goodbye... With my last dying breath I said, "Goodbye good world". I then looked at the sky and closed my eyes for the last time as I felt my heart slow down. I then prayed that my family would go on, but I only got half way when my heart stopped fully. I was dead. Death had taken my body. And who had done this to me... my EX boyfriend, John...
